

UNBROKEN

Unbroken

by Laura Hillenbrand

English III summer reading

All students are to read Unbroken by Laura Hillenbrand. On the first full day of classes, all students will take a test on the book; it will account for 10% of the first nine weeks' grade. Following the test, we will begin viewing the film adaptation of the book, directed by Angelina Jolie; we will then write a paper comparing the two renditions of the story.

There is no study guide. You are encouraged to take notes while you read, either in the margins or on sticky notes or separate paper.

You are welcome to purchase or borrow a copy of the book from wherever you'd like; this is a link to the book on Amazon.
